Jim Brittain is director.

Car Winners to Hold Finals

A junior version of the Indianapolis Memorial Day classic will be enacted at Torrance Saturday.

About 50 youngsters will gather in the parking lot behind City Hall, 3031 Torrance Blvd., to compete in model car races.

Starting at 10 a.m., they'll compete in contests to see which cars can make the best time down a specially constructed ramp.

Contestants are winners and runners-up in district contests conducted at a dozen Torrance playgrounds during the past two weeks.

The small wooden cars were painstakingly built by the boys at home and during sessions conducted at the play areas.

Winners in the various age groups will receive ribbons and certificates from the sponsoring Torrance Recreation Department.

BRESSARD-TIARA

that "born with this color" look . . . naturally whispers of glamour . . . so completely different it does far more than create the real life color and shimmer of young hair—it enhances texture and never leaves through shampooing. Bressard-tiara is homogenized and proteinized, and it's so gentle that touch-ups are a breeze! Overcomes sun, sea, harsh dye, and permanent damages, does away with grey.
